

ST. LOUIS MEN ARE NOW SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

NAMES OF COLORED MEN SELECTED FOR NEXT DRAFT

MORE THAN 100 TO LEAVE HERE APR. 26

Men Selected Will Be Part of Big Draft Movement All Over Country. Colored Will Be Sent To Camp Funston.

The St. Louis quota for the next draft to the National Army will be 551 men. Of this number a little more than 100 will be colored. The exact number could not be ascertained at the time of the news, as some of them have not received instructions from the State Headquarters to their quota. The St. Louis colored men will have to wait for the next draft, April 26, until orders to the contrary are received here in the meantime. Only one word, the 10th, reported the colored men in the list, and others not listed in this list have either not selected or their men have not been informed of the exact number.

The movement is a part of the War Department's plan to send 48,425 drafted men to the different camps by April 10, 1918, and 100,000 by April 15.

The following are the names of the colored men who will be sent from St. Louis no, not shown Friday, April 26.
